The Split in the States.

[The following was published in the London Punch in 1856, and may be regarded as somewhat applicable to the present times.]

United States, if our good will
Could but command its way,
You would remain united still,
Forever and a day.
Does England want to see you split,
United States?—The deuce a bit.

Your North and South dissevered, we
With less disgust should view
Only than England we should see
And Scotland cleft in two.
We wish your great Republic whole,
With all our heart and all our soul.

Why who are we? Almost alone,
With you upon this Earth,
We bow before no Tyrant's throne.
Believe us, aught but mirth
Your noble Commonwealth if cleft,
Would cause us Britons, weaker left.

What head we might, against the wrong
Together make, O friends!
We wish you to continue strong,
On Union strength depends.
So that your States may keep compact
Is our desire—now that's a fact.

By Priest and Soldier's two-fold sway
The old world groans, opprest,
We, and you only, far away,
With Liberty are blest.
And may we still example give,
And "teach the nations how to live."

How all the despots would rejoice,
Should you break up and fail;
How would the flunkey's echoing voice
Take up their masters' tale.
"Free institutions will not do!"
Would be the cry of all the crew.

The Press is gagged—the mouth is shut—
None dare their thoughts to name,
In Europe round; and lackeys strut,
Arrayed in splendid shame;
And creeds are at the bayonet's point,
Enforced in this time out of joint.

Still be it yours and ours to bear
Our witness 'gainst these days.
The world, at least, will not despair
Whilst we our free flags raise.
Then may you still your stripes possess,
And your stars be never less.

Strange it may seem, and yet is not:
The peril of the Free
All springs from one unhappy blot,
The taint of Slavery.
That, that is all you have to dread:
Get rid of that and go ahead!

[From the London Weekly Dispatch.]

The Grand Army of the Potomac.

When the dust of the rout of the Cows—commonly called the Bull's Run—has settled, and the horizon is cleared of the smoke of the "whiff of grape-shot," we are enabled to compare it with similar events in history. At first the newspaper-reading world is surprised at the poltroonery of the race of Manassas Junction. Men cannot understand how soldiers should fight by the stop-watch, and quit the field the second their time is up, even although it should be in the face of an enemy, and on the field of battle. Generals announced the total dispersion of a brigade because "time's up." Others report their own remonstrances to their troops, and the insensibility to shame evinced by volunteers whose term of service had expired. Many complain of the total disregard of the very elements of discipline. One division is certified as having held an indignation mass meeting to protest against the command of their very General. The officers are abused for filling the grog-shops and blocking up the tavern bar, even immediately on the heels of defeat, in place of rallying their runaways, and straining every nerve to present an orderly front to the pursuers.

A calmer and more historical reflection on events will tend to dissipate our surprise. Washington had exactly the same difficulties to contend with. Volunteers are not mercenaries. They are not like professional troops, who make war a trade for their pay. They are not naturally or constitutionally soldiers. They are embodied at the call of duty extempore—not because they affect a military life, or because the regiment is their home. They are married to "Brown Bess," not because they have fallen in love with her. They leave wife, sweetheart, relatives, the shop, the farm, all they have to look to for their future. Their crops are waiting to be reaped—their cattle to be tended—their rival grocer is carrying off all the trade, while they are melting, payless on the banks of the Potomac. The women find there is no real cause of war—that there is no altar or hearth to be defended—that the quarrel is little better than the crotchets of politicians, without any object or wise end that a plain man can see.

Volunteers will unite together, and keep together, to defend their homesteads—to fight for their property—to do battle in front of their wives and children. That is a cause which puts courage into the coward, and makes every father a patriot. But to leave one's home to attack other people who have homes, and those one's own countrymen—to turn defence into invasion—to march away hundreds of miles on a marauding expedition to work out the political speculation of a Minister at Washington, to lay waste one's own country, and drill holes through one's own fellow-citizens—is it so wonderful that reflection made clearer, and reason rendered more acute, by danger, privation, want of pay, and food, and rest, should constantly recur to the question, "What was it all about?" should answer its own query by the reply, "Nay, I cannot tell;" and should fail to be satisfied with even the reply, "But 'twas a glorious victory?"

Jefferson Davis, a lion, a wise and skilful leader in the field, has proved himself a bungler in the Cabinet. He never should have attacked Fort Sumter. He never should have threatened Washington. See how long our Parliament suffered, forebore, negotiated, forgot, and forgave, before it came to an open rupture with the Royalists. It knew well that it must depend upon voluntary assistance; that it must "take the country with it;' that the people would not sustain any aggressive rebellion—would muster only in defence, and when they had put the Sovereign undoubtedly in the wrong. The Southerners should have simply seceded, stood inoffensively upon their grievances, waited for an attack, assumed an attitude of defence against all invasion and oppression. Had Davis commenced in the spirit of such a policy it is doubtful—subsequent events have proved it to be problematical—whether there would have been any civil war at all. We trust that the inaction of the Confederates after their recent victory is to be interpreted by the full adoption, as is said by Beauregard, of a non-aggressive policy. Give the Federalists time to think.

The case of the Southerners is as intelligible as it is inexpungable. They are the producers of nearly all the surplus wealth of the Union. The North produces nothing, earns nothing—cannot feed itself even—lives entirely on the out-door relief it exacts by the suffrage and the ballot-box from the South and West. Yet it wallows in the derived wealth of the usurer, while the South is stripped to the rage of the victim of the money-lender; and now, by the Morrill Tariff, the North shows that it is minded to drive foreign competition from the relief of its protective rate-payers altogether. The politicians of the North have impressed upon the executive Administration and upon the Legislature of the Union a policy of virtual confiscation of the whole source of the income of the South. To defend their property from escheat, and their industry from an intolerable burden of taxation, levied, not for general or public purposes, but for the private profit of individual States, they resume that independence upon the Union which they never parted with their right to recover, and their title to which they asserted when they retained their sovereignty in the very act of Confederation. There is a perspicuous, a momentous issue. If ever there was a justifiable ground of secession and resistance, here is it to be found. The social system, the interests, the sympathies of the Southerners are entirely homogeneous and compact. What is there in the case of the Federalists to animate the patriot or interest the citizen? The Western States are the victims of the monopoly, the protective tariff, the differential duties of New England. What have the Unionists to fight for? What does Brother Jonathan or even his Uncle Sam care for "them dam'd niggers?" Where are they so hated as at Boston, where so abused as in Philadelphia, where so scorned and insulted as in New York? Penned off in the very churches, banished from the omnibus, segregated in the railway car, sent to the steerage of the Cunard steamer. What are the associations of the "star-spangled banner," that the "integrity of the Union" should make the thrumster, the ploughman, or the chandler's shopman rush to arms? What history has it to show to inspire any patriotism except that of the grog-shop? Why the Federalists have to teach their boys to love their country by a sort of political school catechism. They can't take the measles of popular enthusiasm naturally; the children have to be inoculated by the schoolmaster, and a political creed learned by rote. What are their associations but those of cotton, pork, repudiation, and railway swindling of the Britishers? The fudge of the Stars and Stripes is the mere bunkum of stump rowdies and White House politicians.

What is there to hearten the Federal volunteers to this ruinous controversy. When we read of the 92nd Highlanders, the Middlesex Brigade, the German Zouaves, or the Swiss Rifles, we see at once the source of the defections which have been so deplored. Set Braemer men to fight for Lochaber or Londoners for the Thames, Prussians for the Rhine, or Swiss for the Wetter Horn, and they will die in the last ditch, and hold together as long as there is an invader left. But what can a scratch pack master, a polyglot posse comitatus, a piebald subscription contingent from all the nations of Europe, forced from their fields or their counter by the ballot, many of them kidnapped, not being naturalised citizens—what glow of patriotism can they feel for the bluffs of Harper's Ferry; what is there to animate their enthusiasm, to justify their self-sacrifice, to inspire their sense of duty in devotion to the soil of Bear's Creek, the plains of Jacksonville, or prairies of Lincoln's Salt Lick? Disguise it as they may, this is a politician's not a people's war. Grudge, bosh, and bunkum meets us at every turn of it. Even the citizens of the Union care nothing for the Union. You hear of "Old Kentuck" of Alabama, of the Palmetto State, of terms of endearment applied to the State where a man has been "raised;" but where among the people is there any enthusiasm for the United States of North America? Why mankind at large might as well speak of their patriotic devotion to the universe, or their love for the immensity of space. How can love of country be concerned in the invasion of it, and the slaughter of one's fellow countrymen? The Union is one country only on the map, in a paper constitution, in the Gospel according to Sieyes and Bentham, and the Philosophes. There indeed never was an Union, only a Confederation, the draft of a special pleader, engrossed, not by nature, or by nations, but only by the law stationer. Cobbett in the last century told the Confederates that they could never hold together—that seals on parchment could never be the bonds of States. Mutual interests connected them—incompatibilities of interest must as certainly disperse them. "The hour has come, and the man." * * * * * *

We have read with infinite amusement the lucubrations of W. H. C., the native American advocate of the Federalists for the Daily News. He proves, with the most cheerful self-satisfaction, that the flight of Bull's Run was a "glorious day for the Union;" that it proved conclusively the fearless courage of the Federal volunteers; that the Confederates did not win the battle nor the Federalists lose it; that it has made "the Republic of the United States stronger in military power, in courage, and confidence of a speedy triumph than before the battle!"—that it "proves the Northern and Western troops are far braver, more resolute, and indomitable than the Southerners!!" —and that "the experience of this battle has most justly elevated the morale of the Union soldiers by the assurance they have gained thereby that they can win victory against almost any odds!!!" From such premises, we need not say the conclusion is irresistible that by the time the Secessionists have, to use a New England phrase, knocked the Federalists into a cocked hat, the cause of the Union will thereby have been made completely triumphant.

Our triumph's great because it is so small;
Then 'twould be greater were it none at all.

THE CAPT. OF THE PRIVATEER JEFF. DAVIS A NATIVE OF ST. JOHN.—It turns out that the Capt. of one of the Southern privateer vessels is a native of this city. He was formerly in command of the steamer Everglade, which plied between Charleston, S. C., and a port in Florida. A correspondent of the Boston Traveler, who was formerly acquainted with Mr. Coxetter, says:

"As so much has been said with regard to the insubordination on board the Jeff. Davis, under his command, I think it is my duty to caution those who with insufficient means, would come within reach of his guns. He is a determined man, and one who will fight to the death, and probably sink sooner than surrender."

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS AND OINTMENT.—Discomfort.—Nothing tries human patience more severely than the feeling of incapacity for exertion. Pain, many bear with fortitude; few can endure the weariness attending debility without complaint. This weakness commonly depends on a disordered digestion, and may be readily rectified by early resorting to Holloway's remedies, both of which act most energetically, yet most safely, on the stomach and liver. The Pills, dissolving in the stomach, act immediately on its secretions; the Ointment penetrates to all internal organs, tending always to restore their natural functions. A short trial of these medicines will convince the most sceptical. Relief soon follows their use; and the continuation of them for a time, in most cases, effects a permanent cure.

The Science of Ironing.

ASK FOR BRIGGS' AUSTRALIAN SATIN GLAZE STARCH where you purchase Harper Twelvetrees' Soap Powder. One pound is equal to nearly Two Pounds of any other. It is the very best Starch for Gentlemen's Collars and Cravats and the most economical for large Washing Establishments, Manufacturers, Bleachers, Hot-Pressers, and Finishers; and as the iron cannot possibly stick, every description of Embroidery, Lace, and Muslins can be Ironed without fear of tearing. Used exclusively by her Majesty's Lace Dresser, by the Laundress for Buckingham Palace, and by thousands of Families throughout the Kingdom. Sole Manufacturer—HARPER TWELVETREES, Bromley-by Bow, London, E.

26, Woodstock street, Bond street,
August 31, 1858.

[Lace Dresser by Appointment to the Queen.]

GENTLEMEN:—I have used your Starch for a considerable time, and have much pleasure in saying that is the best Starch I have ever used. It surpasses any of the Foreign Manufactures for giving a beautiful finish to the most delicate fabrics. For fine laces, &c., it is invaluable.

I am, Gentlemen, yours respectfully,
ELIZABETH CURLING.

The Great Domestic Revolution.

HARPER TWELVETREES' SOAP POWDER for Washing without Rubbing has created an entire change and thoroughly revolution in the management of the "Family Wash;" and there are no reasons why the old, slovenly and disgusting process should be retained—a process so unnecessary, unscientific, and barbarous as to be considered a great national disgrace! Harper Twelvetrees' Soap Powder saves time, trouble, money, firing, soap, "tongue and temper," and entirely abolishes the "female slavery" of the tub and the present domestic happiness destroying practice of washing. It contains nothing injurious, but is as safe for the trabric and skin as the best soap! Only boil the clothes 20 minutes and hang them up to dry. No RUBBING is required, however dirty the clothes! A Penny Packet is equal to Two Pounds of Soap!

Every Packet bears the signature of the sole Manufacturer, HARPER TWELVETREES, "The Works," Bromley-by-Bow, London, E. the largest Manufacturer of Washing Powder in the world. Sold by all Grocers and Druggists

Friday Morning, Oct. 11, 1861

New Election at Nanaimo.

So we are to have another election at Nanaimo forthwith. For the fifth time that district is to have the opportunity to send a member to the Assembly; and it is hoped that they will put the opportunity to a good account. The first member for Nanaimo was a worthy old gentleman—Dr. Kennedy. He was elected in '56 and held his seat till his demise in '59. Legislation now-a-days is only toddling about in short clothes; but during the time of Dr. Kennedy, legislation was really in its infancy, and consequently the first member from Nanaimo never left any particular act on record to show the interest he had in his constituency. The next member was Mr. Barnston, a young lawyer. He was returned like Dr. Kennedy, by a proxy vote cast by the Company; but he refused to qualify, so Nanaimo received no benefit from his election. Next came Capt Swanson. While in the neighborhood of the Russian possessions, not dreaming of political honors, he was made member for Nanaimo by the famous one vote, and a proxy vote at that. The anxieties of political life not suiting his views, he refused to take his seat or even be sworn in. So for the third time Nanaimo was left in a forlorn condition. Early in '60, A. R. Green, Esq., was returned as a member. Whether he ever knew that he was a member of the Assembly or not is somewhat problematical, as he never, to our knowledge, spoke on any occasion. Of one thing we are certain, that about three weeks after he was elected, when the people of Nanaimo were inquiring when the election was to take place, they learned for the first time that the election was over. Late inquiries from that quarter as to what their member had done for his constituents, elicited the answer—"nothing! like his predecessors." The next inquiry brought out the fact that he had been in Yankeedom for three months during the present session, and consequently ceased to be a member.

Lest Nanaimo should continue to be misrepresented, or be without a representative, Mr. Waddington moved for a new writ yesterday. The Attorney-General tried hard to postpone the motion by referring it to a Committee, and thus keep the Nanaimo constituency in his breeches pocket. Unfortunately for his waning influence, even Mr. Franklin opposed the motion of his colleague, and a new writ was ordered. So the electors of Nanaimo have a fifth chance to send somebody to the Legislature who can do something to promote their interests, and not make Nanaimo the butt of the Colony as hitherto.

It has been five years since Nanaimo was first represented, yet not one solatary thing has been done to advance its interests. If this is not enough to satisfy the most obtuse that there is no dependence to be placed either in Hudson Bay Company appointees, or the diminishing followers of Mr. Cazy, we know not what will. No dependence can be placed in either of these classes of candidates. If Nanaimo ever gets her rights, ever prospers, ever gets a road to Victoria, it will be through the exertions of of an independent member. It certainly will not be through the efforts of those who have no higher ambition than to fill the country with office-holders to live off the profits of the industrious.

We warn the electors of Nanaimo not to countenance, not to pledge their support to any candidate that they are not perfectly sure will serve their interests faithfully and to the letter. It is time the electors should do so. It is time they should assert their power and put an end to apologies for representatives. If such be done, there will be a road to Nanaimo next Spring that will not only settle the country between here and there, but also add to its importance and enhance the value of the property of the free-holders, who have been forced by the do-nothingism of the Government party to pay five dollars an acre for land, instead of one dollar as at present.

What the "Managing Committee" have done

EDITOR BRITISH COLONIST:—For the satisfaction of the public, which I suppose "Publico" claims to represent, I beg to say that it is proposed, after the lecture on next Tuesday, to lay before those present such information as the Committee of Lectures have been able to obtain on the subject of a Library and Reading Room. A committee can be then appointed with power to make the necessary arrangements.

The former meeting was, as stated, called simply that the committee might explain the objects they had in view in their endeavors to provide a course of lectures for the public instruction and entertainment. In consequence, however, of the expression of opinion at the meeting in favor of immediate action in forming a Library and Reading Room, the Committee decided, in order to test the willingness of the public to subscribe funds for such a purpose, to open a subscription list at Hibben & Carswell's, and Mr. Glover wrote a letter to your newspaper on the 3d inst., urging people to sign their names. Hitherto only ten persons have signed the list. We also agreed, as Mr. Glover suggested, to lend several of our own books for use in the library, and have solicited similar support from others. In addition, we endeavored to enlist the assistance of our fairer friends in getting subscriptions, but with less success, I am sorry to say than more specially attractive men might have had. Furthermore, we have visited almost every building in Victoria that was likely to be suitable for a Reading Room and Library and have ascertained the rent, probable cost of alterations and other particulars.

It will thus be seen we have not been altogether idle,

GILBERT MALCOLM SPROAT.

THE BRITISH COLONIST

Friday Morning, Oct. 11, 1861.

The Theatre Rumpus.

The hearing of this interesting case was resumed yesterday morning, at 11½ o'clock, in the Police Court, before A. F. Pemberton, Esq., stipendiary magistrate. Mr. Ring and Mr. Dennes appeared for Pointer and Gibbs, and Mr. Drake for Mr. Ryckman. The counsel for the two colored men called the following evidence to establish Mr. Ryckman's connection with the throwing of the flour:

Edward J. Buckley, sworn—Was present at the theatre on the night of the flouring; was leaning against the door up stairs; the fracas occurred to the right of where I stood and I was about 5 feet from the scene of action; there were not many people between me and the belligerents; saw Gibbs, Pointer and Ryckman there; did not see the latter do anything; noticed Pointer jump up and shake himself to get the flour off, and saw Gibbs make an assault on Ryckman; the flour had fallen on Gibbs, but did not notice whether he shook himself or not; was summoned by Mr. Pointer to give evidence; told a policeman to arrest Gibbs for the assault on Ryckman; saw no one strike Pointer; did not see Mr. Ryckman do anything, although he was standing four or five feet from Pointer; Gibbs advanced on Ryckman and struck him; Pointer pointed out Ryckman to Gibbs.

To the Court—I saw no flour before it was thrown, and was not aware that any was to be thrown; I saw my brother there ten minutes before the occurrence.

To Mr. Ring—Saw no flour on Mr. Ryckman, nor in his hand; do not know who threw the flour; saw it after it was thrown, but not before.

The Court suggested that it might be the brother of witness who was standing near by when the flour was thrown; and a subpœna has issued for the appearance of John L. Buckley.

Robert Shaw, sworn—Am carpenter on H. M. S. Topaze; I was in the theatre on the night of the concert and stood in the upper story, near the wall; saw Gibbs and Pointer in the theatre, and know there was flour thrown, but was looking the other way at the time; would not like to say who threw it: saw Mr. Ryckman there, and I swear that he had nothing in his hand but his cane; he was listening to the performance; had he hove the flour, I should have seen him; cannot say I saw the flour throw; was looking the other way at the time; heard a disturbance, and on looking around saw two colored people smothered with flour; am a perfect stranger in this place, and know but few here.

To the Court—Cannot say I saw the flour thrown.

The Court—Did you see a paper containing flour?

Witness—I don't know that I did; I might see a paper and not know what was in it; the same way with a shell—it may explode and no one know what it had contained.

The Court—Did anybody give you a paper?

Witness—No one; I do not remember whether I picked a paper up or not.

The Court—Do you know who threw the paper?

Witness—I decline saying who did throw it.

The Court—On the ground that you do not wish to criminate yourself?

Witness—I do not wish to answer that.

The Court—You can only decline to answer on the ground that you may criminate yourself; otherwise, if you still decline, I shall commit you for contempt.

Witness—I do not wish to criminate myself; I feel confident that Mr. Ryckman did not throw the flour; I had no talk with him whatever with regard to the flouring, and heard him say nothing; had no conversation with anybody that night, except Mr. Howard; the back part of the theatre was crowded with whites—engineers and attaches of the Fleet and civilians; saw no onions or other missiles thrown.

John L. Buckley, sworn—Was at the theatre on the night of the flouring, and stood 6 or 8 feet from the complainant; Mr. Ryckman and I stood together; saw no flour thrown; did not see Mr. Ryckman with a paper in his hand; heard him make some observation after the flour was thrown, but do not remember what about. I swear positively he did not throw it, because if he had I would have been sprinkled; I saw the last witness at the theatre, but observed nothing in his hand; I was eight or ten feet from Pointer.

To the Court—I saw the flour fall on Pointer; but cannot swear which side it came from.

Mr. Drake said he did not suppose, after the evidence which had been given, that the Court would wish him to call further evidence for the defence.

The Court saw nothing in the evidence to connect Mr. Ryckman with the assault, and would therefore dismiss the charge against him. In the case of Gibbs, who had pleaded guilty to an assault on Mr. Ryckman, by striking him, he saw no palliating circumstances. The assault had been committed in a crowded theatre in the presence of women and children; the peace of the town had been endangered, and very serious effects might have ensued. The Court regretted the injury which had been done to the cause of the colored people in this colony by the action of Gibbs in assaulting an innocent party; the police were present on the night in question and were fully competent, had they been appealed to, to either arrest the guilty parties on the spot or to cause them to be summonsed on the following day. The excitement growing out of the assault was intense, and he wished to make known through the newspapers that in future cases of the kind quiet people should retain their seats, in order that the police might the more readily detect the guilty ones, as in the confusion, innocent persons might suffer alike with the guilty. His honor concluded by fining Miften W. Gibbs £5 for the assault on Ryckman.

Mr. Drake asked the Court to order Mr. Gibbs to pay for a coat and other articles of apprrel belonging to Mr. Ryckman, which were destroyed or lost by reason of the assault.

The Court said it had not the power to so order, and Mr. Drake said he should commence a civil action against Gibbs for the amount.

CONSPIRING TO CREATE A RIOT.

The case of James A. McCrea and Edward F. Boyce, summoned on complaint of Chief of Police Smith that they had conspired to create a riot at the theatre on the same night as the flouring took place, was called up.

Horace Smith, sworn, Heard Mr. McCrea hissing and heard Boyce call out "Felix, don't sing;" the performance was stopped by the riotous conduct on the last, of some of the audience; saw Mr. McCrea put down his head behind some ladies and hiss; saw no onions thrown, but some flour after it was thrown; Boyce hissed as well as McCrea; Mr. McCrea promised me there should be no disturbance, and followed me from the theatre when I went to get more policemen, to request me not to do so; he seemed to say that he had a control over the movements of the people; the riot had commenced when I returned with more police men; I was forced to warn Boyce in consequence of his conduct; had seen him in company with Mr. McCrea before the riot, when he said something about having paid Felix some money not to sing; Mr. McCrea and Boyce did not seem to act in concert.

Officer Levi, sworn—Was on duty in the lower part of the theatre on the night of the concert; I saw Mr. McCrea come into the pit and throw what I suppose to be an onion; it went into one of the lower private boxes; did not see him do it more than once; after the disturbance I saw Mr. Boyce in the upper part of the theatre, and heard him hiss.

To Mr. McCreight—Was dressed in uniform at the time; never took the trouble to go into the box to see if it really was an onion that was thrown but it looked very much like one.

To the Court—Saw Mr. McCrea throw what I believe to be an onion; Boyce was up stairs when he hissed; it was after the riot when he did so; the performance was stopped on account of the riot; heard there was an alarm of fire raised by the row.

M. Winkler, sworn—Was at the theatre on the night of the riot; know nothing about throwing of onions; before I went to the theatre I heard there would be plenty of onions thrown at the colored people; heard it from different parties on the street; had a conversation with Mr. McCrea, who told me it would be very convenient to have some onions with me at the theatre; do not remember whether or not it was Mr. McCrea told me there onions would be thrown at the colored people; he told me the onions were in his store and I could have them if I wished.

[The remainder of this witness' evidence was similar to that given by him at a previous examination.]

To the Court.—As soon as I heard that colored people had taken front seats, I thought there would be a row, so I advised some ladies to go home.

Felix Lesbonis, sworn—Was engaged to sing at the concert for the benefit of the hospital, and I was to be compensated for my time lost; just before I sang, a man asked me to go into a barroom, as a Mr. McCrea wished to see me; I went to the bar-room, where a big fellow—Mr. McCrea—

Mr. McCreight objected to Mr. McCrea's name being used by the witness until he had identified him.

Mr. McCrea was sent for.

Witness resumed—Mr. Sutro interpreted between me and Mr McCrea, saying the latter would give me $50 not to sing; I refused the money at first, but I said, "go and see Madame Ballagny and if she will not sing I will not;" the reason assigned why I should not sing was that there were colored people in the theatre.

[Witness identified Mr. McCrea as the gentleman whose offer was interpreted to him.]

Emil Sutro, sworn—Was present at the theatre on the night of the concert; was commissioned by Mr. McCrea to offer Mr. Felix $50 not to sing; he assigned no reason for making the offer; the offer was not increased; Mr Boyce was not present; Mr. Guild was present when the offer was made; the bar-keeper of the saloon and others were also there.

Mr. Ring asked for an adjournment on the ground that Mrs. Gordon, Mrs. Skinner and a child that was struck with an onion were not in court.

Mr. McCreight hoped the ladies would be kept out of court.

Mr. Ring regretted the necessity for pursuing such a course.

The Court wished to have as much light thrown on matter as possible, and adjourned the further hearing until Monday next inst., at 11 o'clock.

House of Assembly.

WEDNESDAY, Oct. 10, 1861.

House met at 3:15 P. M. Present—Speaker Helmcken, and Messrs. Waddington, Southgate, Cary, Crease, Burnaby, McDonald, Franklin.

THE SEAT FOR NANAIMO DISTRICT DECLARED VACANT.

Mr. Waddington moved to issue a writ for the election of a new member for Nanaimo. The statute says that in the event of the absence of a member without leave, a writ may be issued for an election of a new member. The House opened on 26th June, and the member for Nanaimo was not present after a lapse of more than three months.

The Speaker asked if evidence could be had.

Mr. Cary—You can't bring evidence before the House.

Mr. Waddington said if necessary, witnessses could be had. Mr. Green's clerk could prove his absence; but he believed no one would deny that the honorable member was not there. The district was already sufficiently ill-treated and he expected the honorable Attorney-General would assist him in the motion.

Mr. Cary had received a communication from the honorable member and he expressed a wish to resign his seat.

Mr. Franklin supported the motion, and said it was not usual for a committee of inquiry to ascertain if the se t was vacant.

The Speaker said there were two Acts on the subject—one 23d August, 1859, and the other 3d November, 1859.

The seat of the member for Nanaimo was declared vacant.

Mr. Waddington wished to ask the member for Victoria District if he was an official for British Columbia.

Mr. Crease did not feel it neceseary to discuss the question till he had received an official appointment from the Home Government.

Mr. Waddington put it to the House and said all members would agree that the honorable gentlemen had received an appointment. He (Mr. Waddington) had no difficulty in the matter, but took an answer as an answer.

The matter dropped.

Mr. Tolmie's resolutions passed to a second reading.

COMMITTEE OF SUPPLY.

House in Committee of Supply, Mr. Waddington in the Chair.

An Act to apply £4500 for salaries, &c., was taken up.

Mr. Helmken said that the resolution accompanying the Civil List had not been correctly copied into the bill—the clause relating to instalments having been omitted. The resolution ought to be embodied verbatim [hear, hear] and no power was vested in any one to change it.

Mr. Cary replied that nothing in the world could induce him to put into any bill which he drew up language he considered improper. He would not be responsible for any nonsense or awkward ess of language which might pass.

Mr. Helmcken contended that the resolution should appear in the bill as passed; whether right or wrong, let it be embodied, and then the House if necessary, can alter it.

Mr. Burnaby took the same position, and did not think the statement of the hon. Attorney-General exactly to the point.

Mr. Cary did not care what the opinion of the House was, he should never put in a bill language he knew to be wrong. The sense of the resolution was all that was necessary.

The Chairman had heard with much surprise the arrogant language of the hon. Attorney-Gen. He had presumed to call the action of this House nonsense. He should go to school again and learn what the word meant. He (the Chairman) had been a business man for many years, and did not wish to be told at this late day that installments due, meant the same as revenue. The learned Attorney-General's remarks about nonsense, were as perfect a piece of impertinence as he had ever listened to.

Mr. Cary said that the honorable gentleman had used language altogether unbecoming for a chairman; he was put in the chair to keep order instead of creating disorder by the use of improper language. He had heard him bluster at times so greatly as to upset the proceedings of the House. The words used with regard to nonsense referred to what a member might bring forward, and not what the House saw fit to pass.

Mr. Helmcken, to put an end to further controversy, would move that the missing words be inserted.

The Chairman said he was maintaining order when he remarked upon the Attorney General's arrogance. The House was not to be insulted or ridden over rough-shod—even by the honorable Attorney General.

Mr. Cary—And the Attorney General is not to be told to go to school again.

Mr. Helmcken's motion, which was to the effect that the civil list was not to be paid until the residue of the crown lands and all installments due thereon had been handed over to the Colony, was passed.

A speck of war between the honorable Attorney General and Mr. Franklin was next observed; but beyond a few sarcastic remarks on either side, it did not amount to anything.

The bills of supply and schedules were passed.

Mr. Burnaby stated that the time of this House had been considerably taken up by going through figures, and that the Chairman should issue instructions to the clerk to prevent the recurrence of such delays.

The Chairman stated that the clerk had told him that there were one or two figures which he had not entered on the books as he had no instructions, but that for the future he would give him the necessary instructions.

The Committee of Ways and Means then rose and reported progress.

INCORPORATION BILL.

The House then resolved itself into Committee on the Incorporation Bill, Mr. Crease in the chair.

The schedule and map, which completed this bill, were passed without amendments.

The Committee then rose and reported progress, and the House adjourned till Friday, at 3 o'clock, P. M.

☞ The steamer Enterprise, with later dates from the seat of war, is due this morning.

☞ The steamer Caledonia will leave at 9 o'clock this A. M., for New Westminster.

CHARGE OF ASSAULT.—A summons was yesterday issued from the Police Court for the attendance of John Parker to answer a charge of having assaulted Mr. Campbell, the Honorary Secretary of the Jockey Club, on Thursday last, at the race course. The assault grew out of the race between "Thunderer" and "Sellick," of which race Mr. Campbell acted as Judge, and declared against "Selleck," the property of Mr. Parker, at which decision the latter became incensed.

A NOISY WOMAN.—Last evening a married lady, residing in the suburbs, sent a complaint to the station-house that a woman residing near her house had abused and threatened her with violence, and was rendering herself generally obnoxious to the neighbors. An officer was dispatched to the spot, but before he reached it the quarrelsome party had escaped to some convenient hiding-place and was not to be found.

THE RIFLE CORPS.—Capt. Gordon, at the request of several members of this corps, has called a meeting of the sworn-in members, to be held at Moore's Hall to-morrow evening. We recommend the weeding out of all the useless, do-nothing members who have wormed themselves into the organization. The corps never can attain to any degree of efficiency so long as three-fourths of its members neglect to attend drill, or pay their dues.

BENCH WARRANT.—A bench warrant was issued yesterday by the Police Judge for the appearance in court of George Little, one of the witnesses in the theatre assault case, who, the acting Superintendent of Police made affidavit, was being kept out of the way to prevent his giving evidence. Officer Levi soon after apprehended George, and he was brought before Mr. Pemberton and gave proper bonds for his appearance as a witness on Monday next.

Auction Sales.

At 11 o'clock this morning, Mr. McCrea will sell at salesroom, the balance of an invoice of English clothing, consisting of Raglans, business and over-coats, vests, &c.; also, groceries and provisions.

At 12 o'clock to-day, Mr. Cochrane will sell by auction, at Little's wharf, the fast-sailing schooner Antelope.

SALES OF LIVE STOCK.—The prices obtained by Mr. Cox yesterday at his auction sale of live stock at Parker's stables, were good. The attendance was fair. Mr. P. M. Backus, at his auction of bulls, cows, and calves, Victoria Market, also met with good figures.

LIVE STOCK.—The schooner Flying Mist arrived from Olympia yesterday with a large number of beef cattle.

REMOVING.—Gladwin, Tarbell & Co., to one of the new fire-proof brick stores opposite the Hudson Bay Company's store.

DIED.

In this city, Margaret Hester Bailey, infant daughter of Maderson F. and Mary A. Bailey, aged 2 years and 8 months.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

LIGHT HOUSE
ON
FISGARD ISLAND, ESQUIMALT HARBOR,
VANCOUVER ISLAND.

COLONIAL SECRETARY'S OFFICE,
Victoria, 1st December, 1860.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN, THAT A Light is exhibited in the Light House recently erected on the summit of Fisgard Island.

The Light is fixed, and of the fourth order of Fresnel;
Shows bright when bearing from N. 2 W. to N. 60 W.
" red " " " N. 60 W. to S. 6 E.
Is elevated 70 feet above mean High Water Level, and may be seen in clear weather 10 miles.
(The bearings are magnetic.)

The structure consists of a keeper's dwelling of brick, with a tower of the same material whitewashed, surmounted by an iron lantern painted red.

It is situated in Latitude.......... 48° 25′ 38″ N.
" " Longitude........123° 27′ 10″ W.

The following directions for Esquimalt and Victoria, compiled by Capt. Richards, are herewith published for general information.

By command of His Excellency the Governor,
WILLIAM A. G. YOUNG,
Acting Colonial Secretary.

DIRECTIONS FOR ESQUIMALT AND VICTORIA.

The Light Tower on the Race Rocks is completed, and the light, (which is a flashing one every ten seconds) will probably be exhibited in the course of a few weeks. The height of the lantern above the sea is 118 feet. The Tower can be distinctly seen at the distance of 12 miles, and vessels should round it at a distance of from half a mile to a mile; the most off lying danger is a rocky patch of 5 feet, lying S. E. by E., distance between 3 and 4 cables from the Great Race.

On rounding the Race Islands, Fisgard Island Light will be seen, and should be steered for, on a bearing N ½ W., which will lead clear of the reef, extending a short precipice off Albert Head.

The precautions to be observed are, to keep the bright light in full view; if a vessel gets too far to the Westward it will appear dim, and shortly become entirely shaded, when she should immediately steer out to the Eastward, until it again shows bright.

This precaution is especially necessary on account of the tides, which, during spring, run as much as 6 knots in the neighborhood of the Race Rocks; the ebb runs almost in a direct line from Haro Strait to the Rocks, and sets between them and the shore; there are also tide races in the vicinity, dangerous for boats or small craft.

When above Albert Head, and desiring to anchor in Royal Roads, a vessel should bring the light to bear N. by W., when she will have 10 fathoms, good holding ground; or, if desired, she may stand to the Westward, until the light becomes shaded green, when she should immediately anchor.

Entering Esquimalt Harbor, the light should be left from one to two cables lengths on the port hand, and when it bears S. by W. at a convenient distance, a ship may anchor in 7 fathoms, or stand into Constance Cove if preferred.

When the light bears N. W. by W. in entering, it changes from bright to red, and shows the latter color within the harbor.

Entering Esquimalt from the Eastward, the light should not be steered for, until it shows bright which is the mark for clearing Brotchy's Ledge, and the Scrogg Rocks; when the light changes from red to bright, it leads about half a cable clear of the Scrogg Rocks.

The course for the entrance of Victoria Harbor, after rounding the Race Light House, is N. ½ E., (allowing for tides), and when Fisgard Island Light changes from bright to red, a vessel will be scarcely a mile from the shore.

Ships, however, above the size of coasters, unless acquainted with the neighborhood, are recommended not to run for Victoria Harbor at night, when they would not be able to enter; but rather to anchor in Royal Roads for daylight; with Southeasterly winds and stormy weather, a ship should invariably run into Esquimalt Harbor, which she can do with great facility by the assistance of the light on Fisgard Island.

GEO. HENRY RICHARDS,
Captain H. M. Surveying Ship Plumper.

Card from F. V. Lee.

VICTORIA, Oct. 10, 1861.

EDITOR BRITISH COLONIST.—Having heard through various sources, that the article by "Nimrod," which appeared in this morning's Press, was attributed to me, and not being at all ambitious to claim that distinction, would you kindly insert this my denial, and much oblige,

Yours with courtesy,
F. V. LEE.

THE INVENTION OF PASSPORTS.—It appears from a passage in the History of Charles V. of Spain, that passports are a Spanish invention and date from the days of the Inquisition. The first ever given in France was signed by that monarch when besiging Marseilles in 1537. Charles, wishing to send two noblemen, officers in his army, on a mission to Madrid, gave them a paper signed by himself, the Pope's legate, the Abbot of Montevido, then Chancellor of the Inquisition, "in order that they might be allowed to pass freely—receive aid and protection in case of need, and not be harassed in their passage through the King's dominion by the bloodhounds of the Holy Botherhood, who showed no more consideration for grandees and nobles than for the hidalgoes and muleteers of Catalonia."

DR. HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS.—The operation of this palatable remedy upon the stomach, liver and excretory organs is singularly soothing and conservative. It regulates, recruits and purifies them. Dyspepsia in all its forms yields to its control and invigorating properties, and it is recommended to mothers, enfeebled by the cares and duties of maternity, as the softest and best tonic they can probably use. In all the crisis of female life it will be found eminently useful, and elderly persons will derive much more benefit from it than from ordinary stimulants. Sold by all Druggists and dealers everywhere. oc9 1m

CAUTION AGAINST COUNTERFEITS.

The high repute and extensive sale of Messrs. Perry's Medicines having induced many unprincipled individuals to foist upon the public illicit and spurious compositions of their own preparation, Messrs. Perry beg to inform persons purchasing their medicines, that none are genuine unless the undermentioned signature of R. & L. PERRY & Co. is affixed on the outside of each wrapper of the CORDIAL BALM OF SYRIACUM and DETERSIVE ESSENCE, and their name, address, and also that of the medicine, is blown on the bottle, the latter which is Peony; and, in addition, all Messrs. Perry's medicines sold in Australia, India, China, and all other parts of the world, will be protected by a patent capsule affixed to each bottle, bearing their name and address in full; and every packet and bottle must be accompanied by a copy of the pamphlet, entitled "Extracts from the 'Silent Friend,'" which is included in the price charged for the medicine.

SURGEONS.

Messrs. R. & L. PERRY & Co are only to be consulted at their residence, No. 19, Berners street, Oxford street, London, as they never, under any circumstances travel either at home or abroad, and they hereby caution the public against any person using their names.

THE GREATEST MEDICAL DISCOVERY OF THE AGE.

PERRY'S CORDIAL BALM OF SYRIACUM.—Established nearly a century, and known throughout the world as THE GREATEST REGENERATOR; a never-failing remedy for the loss of manly power, restores the impaired powers of life when exhausted by the follies of youth, maturity, or old age. It is a certain cure in all cases of extreme nervous debility produced by early imprudence, and various other causes, spermatorrhœa, exhaustion, incapacity for society, study, or business, indigestion, shortness of breath, dimness of sight, giddiness, cholic, bowel and bilious liver complaints, constipation and relaxation, dysentery, asthma, jaundice, fever, lumbago, gout, rheumatism, coughs, colds, sore, weak, and ulcerated throats, nervousness, hysteria, pains in the limbs, interrupted circulation, tic doloreaux, restlessness at night, all chronic diseases, and all female complaints. This invaluable medicine is the most wonderful triumph of art over nature, and is adapted for both sexes. It has the effect of restoring and increasing the natural vigor of those who are suffering from prostration and languor produced by sojourning in the colonies or in hot climates. Thousands have been restored to health and vigour by its use, as sworn to on oath before the Right Hon. Lord Mayor of London, and the following Aldermen—Sir Peter Laurie, Kt., Sir James Duke, Bart., M. P., Sir John Musgrove, Bart., Sir George Carroll, Kt., Sir Robert Walter Carden, Kt., David William Wire, Esq., William Cubitt, Esq., M. P., Sir Henry Muggeridge, Kt., and others.

Price 11s. per bottle, or four quantities in one for 33s., which saves 11s.; and in £5 bottles, effecting a saving of £112s.

Perry's Concentrated Detersive Essence,

a remedy for any of the forms of Secondary Symptoms, and for purifying the system from contaminations. It is recommended for all those diseases for which mercury, &c., are not only employed in vain, but too often to the utter ruin of health. Its action is purely detersive, and its beneficial influence on the system is undeniable. Price 11s. and 33s. per bottle, also a saving of 11s.

Perry's Patent Concentrated Essence of Copaiba & Cubeb Sugar-Coated Globules composed of rare and valuable gums, and also extract of copaiba and cubebs, for the cure of obstinate gleet, gonorrhœa, and all urethral affections, sedimentary and high-colored secretions, dorsal pains and renal irritations in either sex, causing immediate relief by subduing inflammatory action, perfectly tasteless, still retaining at the same time all the curative powers of these valuable preparations.

In all cases of Gonorrhœa, Gleet, Stricture, &c., a single trial will prove the efficacy of this unequalled remedy; as it at once acts upon the kidneys, bladder, and the urino-genital organs, restoring them to their healthy state. Price 11s. and 33s. per box.

Health Depends Upon Pure Blood.

PERRY'S PURIFYING SPECIFIC PILLS.

an infallible cure for all diseases of the skin, such as scurvy, scrofula, ulcers, boils, blotches, pimples on the face and body, &c. Price 11s. and 33s per box.

On Nervousness, Relaxation & Exhaustion.

New Edition, enlarged to 190 pages, illustrated by 100 Anatomical Engravings on Steel, just published, price 2s. 6d.

THE SILENT FRIEND,

A Medical Work on the Nature, Treatment, and Cure of nervous and physical debility, exhaustion, spermatorrhœa, and all urino-genital diseases of the nervous system, and other diseases incidental to both sexes, producing a degeneracy of mental and physical strength, terminating in total debility and incapacity; showing why these diseases so often appear incurable, when in reality they can be effectually removed by the most simple means.

Also to be had from all Agents in all parts of the world,

Extracts from the Silent Friend,

Price 6d., which contains directions for the guidance of patients, and is included in the price charged for the medicine.

DRUGS & MEDICINES.

HEALTH FOR A SHILLING!

Holloway's Pills.

Headaches, Bile, Loss of Appetite, and Lowness of Spirits.

These Pills require no interruption of business or pleasure; they act mildly on the bowels, strengthen the stomach, and promote a healthy action of the liver, whereby they purify the blood, cleanse the skin, brace the nerves, and invigorate the whole system. They effect a truly wonderful change in debilitated constitutions, as they create a healthy appetite, correct indigestion, remove bile, giddiness, headaches, and palpitation of the heart.

Weakness and Debility.

In cases of debility, languor, and nervousness generated by excess of any kind, whether mental or physical, the effect of these Pills is in the highest degree bracing, renovating and restorative. They drive from the system the morbid cause of disease; re-establish the digestion, regulate all the secretions, brace the nervous system, raise the patient's spirits, and bring back the frame to its pristine health and vigor. They increase the appetite, while they secure perfect digestion to all ordinary food, and release the invalid from restraint in diet.

A Word to Females.

There are two periods, especially in Woman's life, which require for safe passage, judgment and attention. Irregularity is apt at those critical times to take place, and to lay the foundation of future disease. These Pills, safe in action, and effective in result, should be taken at certain periods, and the issue will be marvellous both to the young and the middle aged. They prevent nervousness, hysterics, dropsy, and a host of similar serious disorders, by expelling all impurities from the system, therefore none should ever be without them.

Coughs, Colds, and Asthmas.

No medicine will cure colds so quickly as these Pills, when of long duration or settled on the chest, or even though it has assumed the first stage of asthma, they may be relied on as a certain and never failing cure, particularly if the Ointment be well rubbed into the chest and throat night and morning. If this catch the eye of any asthmatical person so bad as even not able to lie down in bed, let him well use these two preparations for only a week, and the result will be marvellous.

Blood to the Head—Diseases of the Heart.

More persons die suddenly from diseases of the heart than the unlearned suppose: in such complaints, the bowels should always be kept well open, as also where there is a tendency of blood to the head. These celebrated Pills purify the blood in an extraordinary manner, and should be taken in copious doses when such symptoms occur, taking care not to overload the stomach; by this means all danger is quickly averted.

Children's Complaints.

It is not generally known, but such is the fact, that children require medicine oftener than their parents. Three-fourths of the children die before they attain the age of eight years. Let mothers, then, be wise, and give to their children small doses of these invaluable Pills once or twice every week, in such quantity as may act gently upon the system twice in the twenty-four hours. For infants, a Pill may be crushed and given as a powder in a little water. The gross humors that are constantly floating about in the blood of children, the forerunners of so many complaints, will thus be expelled, and the lives of thousands saved and preserved to their parents.

Holloway's Pills are the best remedy known in the world for the following diseases:

Ague	Dropsy	Inflammation	Sore Throats
Asthma	Dysentery	Jaundice	Stone and Gravel
Bilious Complaints	Erysipelas	Liver Complaints	Secondary Symptoms
Blotches on the Skin	Female Irregularities	Lumbago	Tic-Douloureux
Bowel Complaints	Fevers of all kinds	Piles	Tumours
Colics	Fits	Rheumatism	Ulcers
Constipation of Bowels	Gout	Retention of Urine	Venereal Affections
Consumption	Head-ache	Scrotula, or King's Evil	Weakness, from whatever cause
Debility	Indigestion
	Worms of all kinds

☞ There is a considerable saving by taking the larger sizes.

N. B.—Directions for the guidance of patients in every disorder are affixed to each Box. n14

☞ CURTIS & MOORE, Sole Agents for Vancouver Island. de4

THESE UNEQUALLED BITTERS and TONIC are now meeting with unparalleled sales, and favor with consumers. In all cases of DYSPEPSIA, DEBILITY, LOSS OF APPETITE, or any irregularity of the stomach, they will be found an efficient remedy, as well as a most wholesome and agreeable Tonic.

As a preventive of Chills and Fever, they have no equal, and have with thousands become an indispensable family medicine; being perfectly pure, and free from any deleterious substance, can be taken by all, young and old, male and female, with benefit.
